"Thy Kingdom Come" Prayer Space for Pentecost

@ The Braid: Pope Francis has asked Catholics to support the "Thy Kingdom Come" global call to prayer to all Christians in preparation for Pentecost. Koinonia John the Baptist Ireland will create a prayer space in the Braid school consisting of a variety of prayer stations created to help, encourage and inspire us to pray: giving thanks for what we have, and praying "thy Kingdom come for our families, young people, parishes, towns and nation. A special Community Prayer will be led by Beth Tays (24/7 Prayer Ireland) at 7.30pm on Friday 7th June in the Braid Primary School (189 Carnlough Road, Broughshane, BT43 7JW). After this, the prayer space will be open non-stop until Sunday 9th June at 9am. If you could dedicate an hour or more, day or night, please contact Darren on 07752154369 so we can include you on the prayer list. The prayer space is open to everyone. You are welcome to call in at any time (and bring a friend).
