Coffee Morning Fundraiser: In May Robert Paul (Rab) Laverty is travelling to Muganza in Rwanda with the charity 'Bridges to Prosperity' to help build a suspension bridge across the Giswi River. The 45m Mutovu Suspension Bridge will provide safe, year-round access for the members of the communities in close vicinity, and will empower the communities out of poverty. To support the charity, we are holding a Coffee morning in St Ciaran's PS on Sunday April 22nd from 10.30am-1.30pm. Everyone is very welcome for a cuppa and cake and any donations will be greatly received or you can make a donation by following the link to <https://mydonate.bt.com/fundraisers/bridgestoprosperty>. Thank you, The Laverty family.

Gael Ruairi Og Nuacht - Language Collection: The money raised on behalf of Conrad na Gaeilge was £1236 from the three parishes. This money will be used to help children from the Glens to attend the Gaeltacht this year. Forms will be available shortly and can be collected from Fergus McAlister, Anne Marie McNaughton or Martin Allen. Gael Ruairi Og had a very successful Seachtain na Gaeilge and even though all our events were free our raffle raised £755. This money will be used to promote our language and provide tuition and books for all our students. Go raibh maith agaibh.
